FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

H.E. SAMUEL YAW NSIAH, HIGH COMMISSIONER OF THE REPUBLIC OF GHANA
PRESENTED LETTERS OF CREDENCE TO THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF SAINT
VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES

SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES, September 13, 2022 – H.E. Samuel Yaw Nsiah, High Commissioner of the Republic of Ghana to Saint Vincent and the Grenadines presented Letters of Credence to H.E. Dame Susan Dougan, GCMG, OBE, Governor General of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines at Government House on Wednesday, September 7, 2022.

High Commissioner Nsiah also met with Prime Minister; Dr. The Hon. Ralph E. Gonsalves, Senator The Hon. Keisal Peters; Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade and Dr. The Hon. Godwin Friday; Leader of the Opposition on the 8th and 9th September, 2022.

During the presentation to Her Excellency, the Governor General, High Commissioner Nsiah expressed that his Government is pleased to continue to bridge the gap between the two countries especially through trade and tourism. High Commissioner Nsiah noted that one of his Government's priorities relate to having direct flights between both countries and more so between West Africa and the Caribbean. The Governor General, Her Excellency Dame Susan Dougan also expressed that such cooperation is important in strengthening the bonds between the Republic of Ghana and Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and looks forward to other cooperation initiatives in the areas of education and environment specifically recycling management.

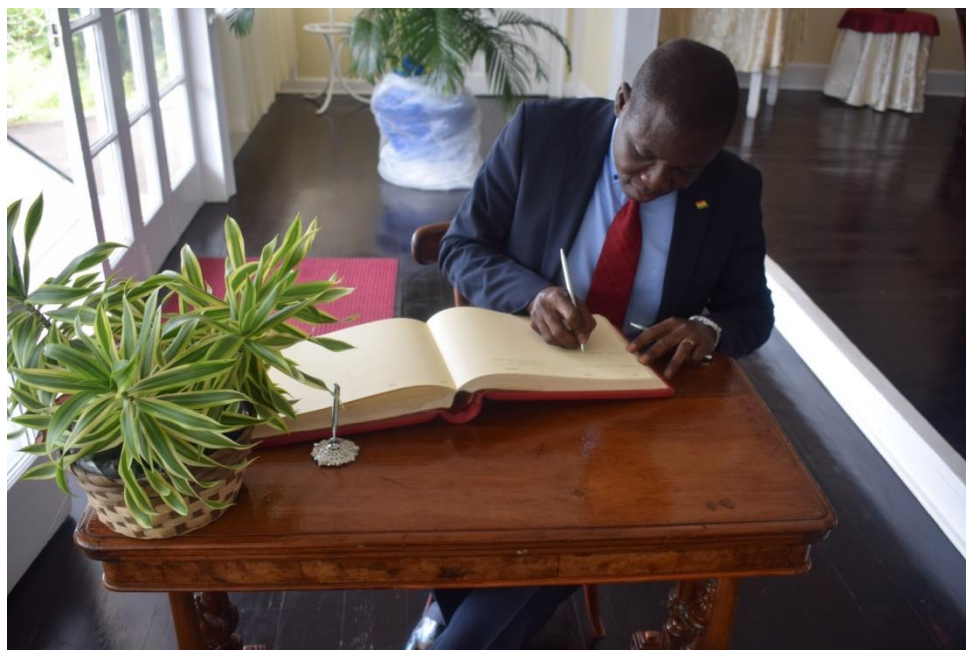

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and the Republic of Ghana established diplomatic ties on 1st August, 2008. The interests of the Republic of Ghana and Saint Vincent and the Grenadines are significantly linked given that both countries are members within the Commonwealth of Nations. The relationship between the two countries is characterised by friendship and cooperation rooted in the bonds of historical and cultural affinity.
