

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OAS IS OFFERING CONSULTANCY OPPORTUNITIES

SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES, September 12, 2025 — The Organization of American States is pleased to announce a consultancy opportunity within the Department of Procurement and Management Oversight (DPMO). This consultancy will be conducted remotely and will have a duration of four months.

Candidates must:

- Demonstrate a minimum of 10 years of expertise in project evaluation
- Attain a graduate degree in public policy, economics, management, or a social science related area.
- Experience working in Latin America and the Caribbean
- Proficient in the use of the English and Spanish languages, oral and written.
- Be experienced and knowledgeable on education for democratic participation, as well as, on Kirkpatrick evaluation method (Bronze or Silver level) certification are requirement but is desirable.
- Experience working with an international organization in the Americas and in the evaluation of similar projects is desirable
- conduct himself/herself in accordance with the principles of ethics established by the United Nations Evaluation Group (UNEG) and the OAS code of ethics and submit a statement on conflict of interest.

The application deadline is September 20, 2025. For more information please refer to Consultancy Details . Expression of interest, along with a CV and narrative and economic proposal may be submitted to Mariela Marchena at mmarchena@oas.org and dpmo@oas.org .

-End-