FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STUDENTS AT PAMELUS BURKE PRIMARY RECEIVE BURSARIES

SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES, February 14, 2024 – Students of the Pamelus Burke Primary School: Maleah Scott and Antwan Williams, received on Monday, February 11, 2024, bursaries from Giuseppe Ambrosio, Honorary Consul of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines in Monaco. The bursaries are a part of an annual programme titled “Maria Camilla Pragliola Scholarship”.

The bursary scholarship programme, established to honour the memory of Maria Camilla Pragliola, the late mother of H.E Giuseppe Ambrosio, aims to recognise and support exceptional academic achievements, among primary school students. The scholarship fund, administered by the SVG Honorary Consul in Monaco, seeks to encourage and empower young minds to pursue their educational aspirations.

The recipients of this esteemed scholarship, Maleah Scott and Antwan Williams, have demonstrated exemplary dedication to their studies, exhibiting outstanding academic performance and a passion for learning.

The academic scholarships were handed over by Mr. Ambrosio’s representative; Mr. Ernesto Cooke.
